Tucked away in a quiet residential cul-de-sac, this attractive 1960s detached family home offers spacious and versatile accommodation, with significant potential to extend (subject to the necessary planning permissions). Ideally situated, less than a mile from Tunbridge Wells Station and just 1.7 miles from the A21, the property offers the perfect balance of commuter convenience and peaceful surroundings. The house boasts a charming, partly tile-hung front elevation and benefits from large windows throughout, filling the interior with natural light. Sitting on a generous plot, the property enjoys ample parking on the driveway and a double garage - the space to the side offers clear scope for future expansion, if desired. The ground floor features a bright and welcoming entrance hallway, a cloakroom/WC, a study or potential fifth bedroom, a spacious living room with doors opening onto the rear garden, a separate dining room, and a kitchen/breakfast room with fitted cupboards and a side door to the side way leading to the garden. Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a separate WC. Outside, a generous driveway leads to an attached double garage and a covered walkway. The mature front and side gardens add to the home's curb appeal, while the private, walled rear garden - mainly laid to lawn and bordered by established shrubs and trees - offers a peaceful retreat. Lovingly maintained by the current owners, this much-loved family home presents a rare opportunity to modernise or extend in one of Tunbridge Wells' most desirable and convenient locations.

LOCATION:

Tunbridge Wells attracts many Londoners, ex pats, and up / down sizers for multiple reasons, not least because the proximity to London for commuters, but especially due to the vast array of good schools for all ages. The Grammar schools are a particular pull to the area, with two boys' grammars and one girls' grammar. Many of the primary schools are Ofsted outstanding and there is also a good range of independent schooling available.

Tunbridge Wells has a plethora of open spaces provided by a multitude of parks, including the best known, Dunorlan Park, with its popular boating lake and elegant vistas. Tunbridge Wells Common provides another excellent town centre vista with some landmark views of the area and its own distinctive benches. To the south of the town centre lies the famous Pantiles with elegant colonnades and often hosting fairs and festivals.

For the sporting enthusiasts, there is a host of amenities including the sports centre with its large pool and indoor courts, whilst outdoor courts are available in several of the parks. There are golf, tennis and cricket clubs in the area.

The town offers two stations on Network South East, with fast trains from both Tunbridge Wells and High Brooms. Access to the A21 lies just to the east of town providing useful motorway connections.
